

ALLIED ARTS COUNCIL OF LETHBRIDGE

Allied Arts Council Excellence Award Nomination Guidelines

Nomination Categories:

Business

This category is designed to recognize a business in the community that has made significant philanthropic contributions or contributed time and talent to an organization, thereby enhancing the entire arts community. The business must be a registered and licensed entity.

Individual

This category is designed to recognize an individual person who has made significant philanthropic contributions or contributed time and talent, to an organization and therefore enhancing the entire arts community. The individual may not represent any specific business, group or organization in this category.

Service Organization

This category is designed to recognize a service organization, club, or not-for-profit group that has made significant philanthropic contributions or contributed time and talent to the Lethbridge community through the arts. The organization must be a registered society or a group that is officially recognized within the community.

Nominating Procedures

All nomination forms must be accompanied by a separate sheet, detailing why the nominator considers the nominee worthy of the award. Specify in as much detail as possible, how the contributions have impacted your project or organization. When nominating for an award, elaborate as much as possible on what makes the support/project/relationship important to your organization.

The Allied Arts Council reserves the right to screen all nominations to verify eligibility. The Allied Arts Council reserves the right to change nomination category in cases in which a nominee may qualify for more than one. An acknowledgment of receipt of a nomination will be made to each nominator.

Jury

The award jury will be composed of Allied Arts Council Board members and established arts community members based in Lethbridge. Jury members are not disclosed prior to the Mayor's Luncheon for Business and the Arts. In the event of a perceived conflict of interest, an alternate will replace the jury member in question. All decisions are final.

Deadline

May 30, or the following Monday if May 30th lands on a weekend. Complete applications must be submitted in person or by mail on or before the deadline. Incomplete or late nominations will not be accepted or considered.
