Allied Arts Council of Lethbridge (AAC)
Art Instructor (Casa)

The Allied Arts Council of Lethbridge (AAC) is a not-for-profit umbrella organization working to advance the arts in Lethbridge. We are seeking a motivated, outgoing, creative, disciplined, and resourceful individual to support art instruction at Casa.

The Art Instructor plays a key role in supporting Casa's art education programming, while also assisting with general classroom maintenance. The successful candidate will help create a safe, engaging, and inclusive environment for participants of all ages.

Key Responsibilities

- Supervision of students and facilitating art instruction
- Assisting students with art projects and maintaining an organized, positive classroom environment
- Monitoring classroom supplies and reporting shortages
- Troubleshooting classroom or studio issues as they arise
- Supporting general cleaning and organization of studio spaces, classrooms, and common areas

This position requires working in a dynamic, fast-paced environment, including classroom spaces, studios, and occasional outdoor programming. Physical activities such as lifting, moving materials, and extended periods of standing are required.

Qualifications

- Background in visual arts; specifically clay wheel, clay handbuilding, painting, drawing, printmaking
- Experience working with children and youth (ages 6 – 17) in an educational or recreational setting
- Strong communication, organization, and problem-solving skills
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team
- Interest in the non-profit and arts sector

Applicants must meet the following criteria:

- Be legally entitled to work in Canada

The successful candidate will be required to work 0 - 15 hours per week as contracted; daytimes, evenings and weekends. The hourly wage is $28.00. A recent Police Information Check with Vulnerable Sector Check is required (cost to obtain will be reimbursed for the successful candidates).

Please submit your cover letter, resume, and three (3) references electronically and in confidence to: Courtney Faulkner, Education Manager at education@artslethbridge.org

Application deadline: Wednesday, December 9, 2026
We appreciate all interest in this position; however, only those candidates selected for an interview will be contacted. Interviews will take place December 14 - 18. The proposed start date is January 2027.
