

- ii) Project/Membership
- iii) AAC Works
- iv) Public Art
- v) Facility
- vi) Education
- vii) Gallery

C) President's (verbal)

i) Mayor's Luncheon

The Mayor's Luncheon date has moved to Wednesday, September 14, 2022 to accommodate the Mayor's schedule.

D) Board Director's (verbal)

- Sharon has begun moving into the new house. She also reports that the UBC School of Architecture, with the Canada Council, has a shortlist of teams to attend the 2023 Venice Biennale.
- Jon reports that while the U of L campus is quiet due to the strike and lockout, he is busy with loan activity, including a loan of the largest installation in U of L Gallery history to the SAAG.
- Jeremy is in the middle of the fall fashion buying season, including travel to Vancouver last week. In addition, he is hoping to take a few postponed trips to Hawaii and Peppa Pig World in Florida.
- Ian is taking the family to West Edmonton Mall.
- Scott has done a bit of skiing.
- David reports that Theatre Outré's Quaint, Quirky and Queer Cabaret will be happening at the Sterndale Bennett Theatre on Saturday, February 26. A production of The Sissy Duckling will also be opening at Casa on February 26 and will run until March 5. He is also working on a new show at the University of Lethbridge.
- Jillian reports that New West Theatre's Sexy Laundry premieres tonight, and the SAAG has an exhibition opening on Friday, February 18. She will also be doing an after-hours performance with the Band Formerly Known as Karen, Lewis and Pam as part of the Quaint, Quirky and Queer Cabaret.
- Peggy has her tickets to Sexy Laundry and wanted to remind everyone that free Family Fun Day kits are still available at Casa, a step-by-step tutorial will be available on the Casa YouTube channel on February 21.

5. Other Business

6. Correspondence

7. Adjournment: 5:59 pm

By: Ian Zadeiks